ARNOLD Malcolm (1921-2006) Fantasy for Tuba	7390	11,95 €	Sonata Breve for trumpet unaccompanied (1999). It is a thorough reworking of the earlier Sonata Breve for unaccompanied tuba, composed in 1981. The version for trumpet was first performed by Carl Lindquist at the 2002 New Music Festival of Sandusky. The three movements follow the traditional fast-slow-fast format and bear the following indications: 1. With assurance 2. Introspectively 3. With energy The first movement, in sonata form, begins with an assertive opening theme followed by a more lyrical second theme. Movement two, a pensive siciliano in three-part song form, becomes increasingly ornamented. The last movement is a spirited dance with occasional asymmetrical meters. Sonata Breve is dedicated, with affection, to my son, Ryan. Jack Gallagher

KESNAR Maurits Prelude	42227	2,50 €	A versatile and very popular collection of well known pieces from a wide variety of styles for players to dip into and enjoy. Easy Winners for Tuba has something for everyone. From Christmas tunes to classics, from television themes to folk tunes, the seventy five unaccompanied tunes have been carefully selected and arranged. The choice of range, technique and style of music have been carefully geared to the instrument and ability range.
KLOSE Hyacinthe Air Varié op. 21	43648	15,00 €	The titles to Easy Winners for Tuba have been arranged as unaccompanied solos, but combined with optional CD or easy piano accompaniments, a whole new world of playing opportunity opens up. Teachers talk of pupils finding the book addictive, unable to leave it alone after playing along with the CD which cleverly incorporates just enough of the solo line to support the player without providing simply a play along.
KOCH Erland von Concerto	7806	29,00 €	Easy Winners for Tuba is an essential companion to a tutor book and an ideal partner to Winners Galore for Tuba.

Introduction, Aria and Rondo	21429	6,50 €	"... This is the sequel to 'Winners Galore', Peter Lawrance's compendium of well-known tunes that has proved a hit with students bored by the staid folk and hymn tunes that populate the average tutor book. 'Easy Winners' repeats Lawrance's successful formula. The selection, which ranges from grades 1 - 4 in difficulty, is both large and versatile - the 75 tunes are ideal for sight-reading tests or for dipping into at the end of a practice session. It can be purchased with or without a backing CD, and there is also a piano accompaniment available separately for concert use."

A versatile and very popular collection of well known pieces from a wide variety of styles for players to dip into and enjoy. Easy Winners for Tuba has something for everyone. From Christmas tunes to classics, from television themes to folk tunes, the seventy five unaccompanied tunes have been carefully selected and arranged. The choice of range, technique and style of music have been carefully geared to the instrument and ability range. The titles to Easy Winners for Tuba have been arranged as unaccompanied solos, but combined with optional CD or easy piano accompaniments, a whole new world of playing opportunity opens up. Teachers talk of pupils finding the book addictive, unable to leave it alone after playing along with the CD which cleverly incorporates just enough of the solo line to support the player without providing simply a play along. Easy Winners for Tuba is an essential companion to a tutor book and an ideal partner to Winners Galore for Tuba. "... This is the sequel to 'Winners Galore', Peter Lawrance's compendium of well-known tunes that has proved a hit with students bored by the staid folk and hymn tunes that populate the average tutor book. 'Easy Winners' repeats Lawrance's successful formula. The selection, which ranges from grades 1 - 4 in difficulty, is both large and versatile - the 75 tunes are ideal for sight-reading tests or for dipping into at the end of a practice session. It can be purchased with or without a backing CD, and there is also a piano accompaniment available separately for concert use." He was a well-educated man, however, who studied the violin and composition at the Conservatorio di San Pietro a Majella. At the age of just eighteen he moved to Paris to perfect his violin playing, and for many years he was the leader of the Lamoureux Orchestra. His ballet Il giardino incantato was produced in Naples in 1891, and the following year Parisian audiences could hear his operetta En pleine lune. As time went by, several of his operettas enjoyed great success in Paris, but everything he wrote has fallen into oblivion with the exception of the Csárdás, which is hugely popular. Even though it was originally written for the violin, this display piece has tempted numerous performers on other instruments as well – including the tuba.)	74446	78,00 €

STRUKOW Valery (*1937)

Concerto für Tuba und Orchester (Partitur) 16513 72,00 €
(This concerto, written in 1980, is a concertante work for the traditional audience, but without technical or musical concessions for the tuba.
The structure is inspired by the classical sonata, with a main theme and a lyrical part which intertwine. The motives are developed in the cadenza.
The technical and musical resources of the soloist are confronted, treated here as a concertante partner.

NB. This concerto was conceived for the bass tuba in C, but the third movement may ideally be played on a F-tuba. The ossia passages are suggested to players using a bass tuba in Bb.

The concerto by Valery Stukow (1937-2005) was played by the tuba finalists (Jens Bjorn-Larsen, Oystein Baadsvik et Oren Marshall) of the International Competition in Geneva (Switzerland), September 13, 1991 in the Victoria Hall with the Orchestre de la Suisse Romande conducted by Enrique Garcia-Asensio.)

Programme notes:

Before John Fletcher the reputation of the tuba as a musical instrument was not altogether grand. It was considered almost entirely as a bass instrument for the brass section of bands and orchestras. Any use of the tuba in a solo capacity was normally in order to gain a laugh.

John Fletcher changed all that by treating the instrument as a vehicle for his remarkable musical talents and establishing that it was after all capable of expressive and technical virtuosity. It was, in his hands, capable of producing the whole gamut of musical expression. His special talent though was not so much what he could do technically but how to use his ability to master the instrument in the service of the music. He had no time for empty flamboyance but loved to provide just the right sound and style for whatever music he was playing.

As a teacher he hated pomposity and avoided the 'master-class' situation. He preferred to explore the instrument with his students, avoiding quick-fix answers in favour of discussion of the possibilities. He always managed to present his views with humour and gave the impression that he was gaining as much from the sessions as his students were.

Whenever possible he like to demonstrate through enjoyable performance. The four pieces presented here are examples of the sort of music he liked to use: challenging and rewarding for the player and fun for the audience. He would expect a full commitment to the spirit of the music but without taking oneself too seriously; he enjoyed the sense of the ridiculous and revelled in the idea of a group and tubas attempting to play music apparently not suited to it but nevertheless bringing the audience to its feet.

The profits from the sale of this music will be donated to the John Fletcher Trust Fund.

The John Fletcher Trust Fund

The John Fletcher Trust Fund was created in the memory of the great tuba virtuosos who died prematurely in 1987. Friends and colleagues from all over the world contributed to set up a fund with the aim of providing bursaries for impecunious young brass players. The fund has supported young people attending course run by The National Youth Orchestra, whose profound influence on the musical development of young players was a case very dear to John's heart. The fund has also supported young brass players in the National Youth Wind Orchestra and the National Youth Brass Band.

"The Best of Fletch" a CD showing the superb artistry of John Fletcher; a reminder to those who heard him and an education for those that didn't.

"A Celebration. John Fletcher, Tuba Extraordinary". A book of reminiscences and tributes by his family, friends and colleagues and some for his own inimitable articles.

"Tuba Tribute to Fletch"
