Hornpipe from Water Music

George Frederic Handel
Arranged by Christian Dickinson

This arrangement of the main theme of Handel's Hornpipe from his Water Music is intended for use by intermediate trombone students. The parts can be played with one or multiple players on a part. However, I suggest limiting the number of players on the bass trombone (optional tuba) part.

The tempo marking is approximately 90 beats to the half note- stately but not dragging. Each note in the first 5 ½ measures should be weighted and evenly balanced, with the next 3 ½ measures played lighter and spaced. From measure 9 the piece builds dynamically to the end, keeping with the lighter feel until the tutti in measure 20, which returns to the weighted feeling of the beginning theme.
