

Two Easter Hymns

Various Composers

Arranged by David Marlatt

Brass quintets are often used in church services, particularly during the Christmas and Easter seasons.

The two famous and commonly used hymns Christ the Lord is Risen Today and Jesus Christ Has Risen Today have been arranged as an accompaniment for the original hymn. They are in the key that is most commonly found in hymn books from various denominations and could be used to replace the organ or play with the organ. There has been a trumpet descant arranged for each hymn that can be played on the final verse.

The first system of the musical score consists of five staves. The top two staves are vocal parts in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The bottom three staves are piano accompaniment, with the top two in treble clef and the bottom one in bass clef. The music is in 4/4 time and spans four measures.

PREVIEW ONLY

The second system of the musical score continues the composition from the first system, also spanning four measures. It maintains the same instrumentation and key signature. The piano accompaniment features more complex rhythmic patterns in the right hand.
