Let the Bright Seraphim

George Frederic Handel
Arranged by David Marlatt

Let the Bright Seraphim is one of the most often performed and recorded duets for trumpet and voice. George Frederic Handel (1685-1759) wrote this aria for Madame Christina Avoglio who had premiered Messiah in 1742. The obligato trumpet part was written for Valentine Snow, the first performer of the famous “The trumpet shall sound” from Messiah.

Flugel horn is strongly recommended for accompanying the soloists. The warm sound of the flugel will better blend with the remainder of the quintet creating a more cohesive sound allowing the bright sounds of the trumpet and soprano to float above the ensemble. The D Trumpet part could be played, as it was intended, on the Baroque or natural trumpet.
